CATALOGUES 1/-

CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. The Highest Bidder for any Lot shall be the Purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the Lot may be put up again at the highest undisputed bidding and resold; or the Auctioneer may determine the dispute at his election, and his decision shall be final and conclusive.
2. No person at any bidding shall advance less than the sum stated by the Auctioneer at the time of selling, nor shall any bidding be retracted.
3. Each Purchaser shall give in his or her name and place of abode in writing (if required), and pay the full purchase money at the close of the Sale, or, if required, the whole or a portion of the purchase money, as the Auctioneer may determine, during the course of the sale.
4. The Auctioneer has described the Lots to the best of his ability and belief from the information furnished by the Vendor, but undertakes no liability whatever in respect to any faults, deficiencies and errors of any description, oral or printed. The Vendor, who supplies such statements, is alone responsible for any error or mis-statement which there may be.
5. No Lot or Lots shall be removed from off the premises until paid for, but each and every Lot shall, immediately at the fall of the hammer, be considered as delivered, and be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the respective Purchaser, or Purchasers, thereof and shall be removed from the Sale at the Purchaser's expense and taken with all faults and errors of description.
6. In as much as the Auctioneer acts only as Agent for the Vendor, he shall not be held personally liable for any default on the part of either Vendor or Purchaser.
7. No undertaking of the Auctioneer or his servants to take charge of any Lots after the Sale or to forward them to their destination shall be held to impose upon the Auctioneer any legal obligation or vitiate any of the foregoing Conditions.
8. Purchasers paying by Cheque must be prepared, if required, to produce letter of credit from banker.
9. In all cases of transfer the original Purchaser shall be held responsible for the purchase money.
10. The Auctioneer reserves to himself the right of refusing any bidding he may deem it advisable to decline, and of withdrawing any Lot or Lots from the Sale, and to sell in such order as he may think fit.
11. If any purchaser shall fail to comply with the above Conditions or any of them, the Auctioneer shall be at liberty to recover in full, the amount of purchase money of the Lot or Lots bought by such Purchaser, together with all interest, costs, charges and expenses, without reference to any delivery or acceptance of the Lot or Lots, other than the first delivery by the fall of the hammer, or to re-sell any Lot or Lots bought by such Purchaser, either by public or private sale, and the full amount of the purchase money at the present sale, or the deficiency (if any), arising from the second sale, together with all interest, costs, charges and expenses, shall be made good by the defaulter and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

PETER BIBBY, F.A.I.,
